

Short Description & Stage Concept

Group: Karow African Mummies

Category: Fashion Show & Performance

Location: Berlin-Karow

1. About Us

The Karow African Mummies are a women's performance group based in Berlin-Karow. We are a collective of women of African origin who are passionate about fashion, culture, empowerment, and intercultural exchange. Our performances showcase not only clothing but also stories about African roots, migration, and life in Berlin.

2. Stage Program

Show Title (Example): Queens of Africa – Fashion meets Community

Content:

- Fashion Show (45–60 minutes): Presentation of outfits for various occasions—traditional African clothing, everyday wear, and modern styles using African fabrics such as wax prints, kente, batik, and designs by fashion designers from Ghana (e.g., Tema).
 - Hairstyling & Make-up Performance: Demonstration of African-inspired hairstyles and beauty styles.
 - Music: A mix of African rhythms and modern beats.
 - Moderation: Short explanations of the outfits, their symbolism, and the stories behind them presented by our moderator.
-

3. Message

With our show, we aim to:

- make African culture visible,
 - empower women and strengthen community,
 - build a bridge between African heritage and everyday life in Berlin,
 - bring joy, elegance, and cultural diversity to the audience in a creative way.
-

4. Technical Requirements

- Stage or catwalk (minimum 6 × 3 m)
- Sound system (CD/USB or laptop connection)

- Microphone for moderation
 - Basic lighting (no special effects required)
 - Changing area for 8–10 people
-

5. Duration & Flexibility

- Total duration: 45–60 minutes
 - Adjustable (e.g., short 20-minute program or 30-minute show, encore possible)
 - Also suitable as part of festivals, galas, or cultural evenings
-

6. Contact

Group „Karow African Mummies“

Contact person: Adolphine Landgraf

Email: u.landgraf4@yahoo.com

Website: <https://reintegration-service-ghana.de/>

<https://reintegration-service-ghana.de/de/African-Fashion-Show/>

WhatsApp: 017687755678

Berlin-Karow
Am Hohen Feld 109
13125 Berlin
